Sir

Resolution adopted in the meeting of the Publication Committee on 14th
May 2020 at DIPSER at 30-AM

Today, 14th May 2020, at the meeting of the Publication Committee of DIPSER, held under the chairmanship of Sri Asim K. Chatterjee, Secretary, the matter of publication of research oriented college magazine is tabled for discussion, it is stated and observed that due to various reasons 'Devaloke' research-oriented journal could not be published after 2017. The magazine has to be published now with 2020-21 issue. It is unanimously decided to dissolve the existing editorial board and reconstitute the Board with immediate effect.

Therefore, the existing Editorial Board is hereby dissolved and the Board is hereby reconstituted with the following members

1. Principal (ex-officio) - Editor-in-Chief
2. Mr. Kismud Ranjan Jha (Member)
3. Mrs. Kalpana Kismoi (Member)
4. Dr. Shanti Kismoi (Member)
5. Mrs. Jolly Sinha (Member)

Keeping in mind the advanced method of teacher education and the multifaceted curriculum, it is highly essential to ensure that contents of this research oriented magazine 'Devaloke' have to be of national and international standard as well. With this idea an Advisory Board is proposed to be constituted to guide the publication committee.

5. Dr. Babita Kumari officiating, Principal, DIPSER
6. Dr. Kalpana Kumari, Asst. Prof.
7. Smt. Jolly Sinha, Asst. Prof.

The meeting, held on off-line mode, was presided over by Secretary Sri Asim Chatterjee. The meeting commenced with the introductory remarks by Prof. (Dr.) Taposh Ghoshal. He Underlined the primary objective of the meeting and the necessity of preparing an Action Plan for the next issue of Devaloke scheduled in 2022. Sri Asim Chatterjee expressed his appreciation on the enriched quality of the recently published issue of DEVALOKE and thanked everyone engaged in the same. Prof. (Dr.) Abijit Pal also addressed the members and suggested steps that could enhance the quality of the journal.

The following resolutions were accepted in the meeting

1. That in order to be an effective medium of disseminating knowledge, Devaloke must transcend its present form and embrace a multidisciplinary and multilingual identity. As such, it was resolved that Devaloke may have articles not only from the domain of Education but also from other related areas of knowledge as well. It was also opined that besides English, Devaloke may have some articles in Hindi and other ethnic language too. This shall help in reaching out to readers - Students and other

Coming from rural / backward areas - more effectively.
The multidisciplinary and multilingual nature of Deraloke shall be mentioned on its cover page appropriately.

2) That a Policy Paper pertaining to the publication of Deraloke shall be prepared. This document shall provide a basic framework that would guide all activities related to the publication of Deraloke.

3) That Henceforth, Deraloke shall be peer-reviewed journal. All articles submitted for publication now onwards; shall go through a double-blind review and Publication of all these articles would be subject to its acceptance by the reviewers. That Deraloke is now peer-reviewed, shall be mentioned in the journal. A list of reviewers shall be prepared to this effect.

4) That - besides scholars of eminence and other distinguished people from different walks of life, other people viz., alumnae, parents, students, faculties, retired professors and research scholars shall be encouraged to write quality articles and submit it for publication in Deraloke. However, acceptance of all articles shall be subjected to the decision of the blind review to be done by the Review panel.

5) That a brief background about the authors would also be included in the journal.

6) It was felt that Deraloke shall be published on a bi-annual basis as against its present annual publication. This would however take effect after the publication of next yearly issue in 2022.

7) Immediate steps should be taken for publication of Deraloke 2022. An action plan to this effect immediately.

⑧ That urgent measures must be taken to include DevaLoka in the (C)GC Case list. Internal members of the Editorial Board were advised to take all ^{necessary} steps in this regard.

⑨ That it was decided that the journal shall continue to be published in electronic form also. All necessary steps should be taken to apply for e-ISSN number for the electronic version of DevaLoka immediately.

⑩ That the ~~of~~ theme of the forthcoming issue of DevaLoka journal shall be Women's Empowerment in the 21st Century and may include issues from the sphere of Education, armed forces, child welfare, nursing, politics etc.

⑪ That it was decided that next publication of the journal shall be done before 22nd of August 2022.

⑫ The next meeting of the Editorial Board shall be held during December 18-19, 2021.

Smt Jolly Sinha and Dr. Kalpana Kumari both members of the Editorial Board of DevaLoka were requested to initiate with action with respect to the above without delay.

At the End, the vote of thanks speech was given by the Co-ordinator, IAAC Sri Manoj Kumar.
